

Turning Selling into Buying[®] - Sat-Is-Fire GPS Description

Product Features

GPS unit in truck with constant readout of position, location and previous journey

Connected to truck's fuel system and constantly monitors fuel consumption

Has a routeing and delivery information for the truck's delivery journey

New routeing info downloadable at any time via 3G wireless connection

Routeing changes can be manually accepted or automatic

Rugged, waterproof, shockproof housing machined from

Works in 12 languages and 4 different voices (including Don Cherry's)

Uses a 4GHz processor and has up to 16GB of main memory

Realtime connection to live traffic updates service from 'LiveTraffic Inc.'

Has the same power as the total computing power on board Apollo 11

Integrated with truck time recording system

Can be accessed from manager's browser in depot

Supported by 24 hour help desk

Program code written in Java Version 6 (.1.6.11)

Installed and supported by local contractors with ISO9001 certification

Comes in 12 standard colours and can be supplied in any custom finish

Simple 'Eeezee Use' interface for truck drivers

Each button requires only 148mg pressure to operate

6 hours running when power fails

Weighs only 4 pounds and can be reduced to 3 lbs with carbon fibre case

Waterproof to IP664 standard

Connected in real time to despatch system in company base

Operating system can be upgraded remotely using EII456 interface

Can function with diesel, petrol, LPG or methanol fuel

Can have company logo embossed into the case

Can be loaded with maps from up to 8 different suppliers

